

ArLIS/ANZ Biennial Conference 9 -10 October 2008. Sponsored by the State Library of Queensland

Call for Papers:

"Cultural Connections: MySpace is an ArtSpace: ARLIS/ANZ Biennial Conference 2008"

ARLIS/ANZ invites you to submit an abstract for a presentation responding to the conference title "Cultural Connections: MySpace is an ArtSpace".

Some prompts that may inspire your paper

- Culture and community
- Collecting creativity
- Information is/as an art
- Access all areas: arts information management today
- Cultural connections in the tropics
- Collecting/preserving/rejuvenating arts collections
- Digital repositories/sourcing and collecting non-text resources
- Artist's books and collections
- New technologies in arts librarianship
- Social networking technologies in arts librarianship
- Stories from our cousins: music libraries, performing arts libraries etc
- Stories from our clients: students, academics, public, curators, researchers, artists
- Public libraries as creative places
- Arts workforce circa 2008 - who are they and where are they?
- Indigenous perspectives and arts libraries
- Youtube culture - Web 2 and arts libraries
- Community engagement – are art libraries just for artists?

Submission Guidelines

Please submit abstracts in an electronic format and include the following information:

- Title of paper
- Author/s of the paper
- Abstract or summary of the paper (500-800 words. Abstracts accepted to the conference will be published to the website prior to the conference, with the full version published in the Arlis/ANZ journal).
- Speaker's name, address, professional affiliation, email address, biographical note (40 words)

Important Dates

When:	Thurs/Fri, 9th & 10th October, 2008 (plus an optional Saturday morning event)
Where:	Queensland State Library, Brisbane. Queensland
Friday 30 May 2008:	Deadline for submission of abstracts
Friday 20 June 2008:	Notification of acceptance to present
Friday 31 October 2008:	Deadline for submission of the paper/presentation for ARLIS/ANZ journal

Please submit abstracts to Alice Steiner - a.steiner@qut.edu.au (Ph. 07 3138 5607)

General Arlis/ANZ and conference enquiries: secretary@arlis.org.au
Conference registration enquiries: treasurer@arlis.org.au
Sponsorship enquiries: conference@arlis.org.au
Web: <http://www.arlis.org.au/>